A Message from the Southeast Productions Team
&
The Mid-Atlantic Boat Show

On behalf of The Mid-Atlantic Boat Show team we hope this finds you and your family well and healthy amid the challenges of the current COVID-19 pandemic. We are definitely living in uncharted times with each day bringing news that can certainly create stress and anxiety in our normal lives. As an event management team for over 47 years, it's safe to say that we have never encountered anything like the past several months nor have we had to navigate through the process of planning an event through the uncertainties that could potentially lie ahead. I think any business will agree that "Hope" is not really a good element of a strategic plan, but given the current environment, "Hope" is certainly in the conversation. In the days, weeks & months ahead it is everyone's hope that things continue to improve and we can all return to a life and routine that resembles some form of normalcy that we've all enjoyed.

Having said that... we are moving full forward in the plans for the 2021 Mid-Atlantic Boat Show in Charlotte February 11 – 14, 2021. We have created a floor plan that will allow more open spaces for distancing and have been able to keep the space cost the same as last year for this event. I also would like to take this opportunity to address the 2021 event as it pertains the possibility of state or local mandates affecting the functionality of the event. We are now approximately 7 months away from the event and again this is where "Hope" comes into the conversation. I think it's everyone's "Hope" that we have returned to some form of normalcy by the beginning of 2021. We will however be in constant contact with the Charlotte Convention Center during these months and will keep all exhibitors alerted to any changes that could affect the event, its dates or facility. We pledge to ALL exhibitors that in the event that the state mandates changes that could affect the functionality of the event we will pass that information on to our exhibitors immediately. At that time, regardless of when that is, all exhibitors who's account is in good standing at that time will have the opportunity to evaluate the event and either continue with the event based on the changes made, transfer monies to another event, or request a full refund of monies paid. For 47 years we have built our business on trust to our exhibitors and we just want to make sure you feel comfortable in continuing to do business with us by knowing that you will have these options with no financial penalties.

If you have any questions or comments about the 2021 event or our policy please don't hesitate to contact us. Our timeline of sending out our renewal packets is the same as previous years. As you know, planning an event of this size is not something that we can do in short time so moving forward with the planning stages including space reservation is imperative for us to make the 2021 Mid-Atlantic Boat Show the most successful year we've had.

Take care & stay healthy. And again... please let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely

Les W. Gray
